

LYRICS FROM RECURRENCE BY VIRA

1. MIDNIGHT POISON (VIRA)

I wander out in the night
A constant fight to leave these memories behind I see the boys and then I smile
Tonight we own the night
The liquor, the smoke, the
midnight poison

I hold it all so dear
It helps destroy my fear

Trust your intuition to retain belief
This desperate
inconsequence is killing me

These blinding lights Combined with the smell of her perfume Intoxicating Half awake, I need to escape
Into the night
The liquor, the smoke, the
midnight poison

I hold it all so dear
So free me from this fear

Trust your intuition to retain
This desperate

Inhale the midnight poison Exhale the midnight poison

2. ESCAPE (VIRA)

Beneath the ocean of liquid lies
My life lies in ruins Through Self-deceit, drugs and sedation
I distance myself from all Judgement Incompletion

Locked up inside
My own mind
Bring me the sunrise

I need to escape, somehow yeah

Beneath the ocean of liquid
lies my life lies in ruins

This world's so fake, take me to another place Erase my name, free me of this shame

Financially fucked like a crack whore Cold, alone, broken on the floor Soulless lifeless
Like them all Slaves in concealed forms

Locked up inside

I need to escape

You have the power to change the world

Help me escape

3. HALF AWAKE (VIRA)

Bathed in sweat it feels like my head is exploding I feel so cold, shouldn't have left the window open Dreams and flashbacks attack in one big blurry mess
What has happened? I can't remember anything!

I must have blacked out
I must have faded away

Everything blacked out Everything faded away

Engulfed in darkness

I'm sleeping half-awake
Dreams or memories

Emptiness, anger, confusion
So Depressive there's no solution
Open eyes detached
From this world
Unfocused hate
Destroying everything

Goodbye
